RE: Freedom of Information Act Request of Mr. Jason Leopold

Dear Mr. Light:

This is a supplemental response to your client's Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated January 31, 2014, submitted to the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) for information concerning the national security damage assessment related to the activities of Edward Snowden. As you are aware, this FOIA request is the subject of litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

As DIA prepared to justify its withholding of certain information in that action, I became aware that a small amount of information should have been segregated for release to your client within sixty of the documents determined to be responsive to your request. Accordingly, these documents have been prepared for supplemental release to ensure that all non-exempt, segregable information has been provided to you. The remaining information contained within these documents is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemptions 1, 3, 5, and 6 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(1), (b)(3), (b)(5), and (b)(6), as noted in my initial release letters to your client dated May 21, 2014, August 7, 2014, and November 7, 2014.

If you have any questions concerning this supplemental release, please do not hesitate to contact this Agency through our assigned Department of Justice counsel.

Sincerely,

Alesia Y. Williams RM
Chief, FOIA and Declassification Services Office
