Dear Mr. Koch:

Enclosed are a number of items which should be of interest. "New Political Times" is our general recruiting flyer scheduled for mass distribution; the YLA Newsletter will go to our campus contacts on a regular basis.

In addition, please find a copy of an article about Ed Clark, the Libertarian candidate for governor of California, which was reprinted from the national newsletter of the Atlantic Richfield Corporation; and two letters-to-the-editor which appeared in the two leading Washington papers recently.

Our prospects continue to look bright.

Sincerely,

Chris Hocker
National Director

Dear Mr. Koch:

In my first letter to you last month, I indicated that I would be supplying details about LP activities which look particularly encouraging. Therefore, I am pleased to report on the situation in Alaska.

As you probably know, Dick Randolph of Fairbanks became a member of our National Committee after successfully heading up the MacBride effort in Alaska. (MacBride received six percent of the vote). Dick was also a State legislator from 1970 to 1974.

He has decided to run for the legislature again, with a full slate of Libertarian Party candidates from the Fairbanks area; another slate is running in Anchorage. Dick is a well-known figure, as are many of his running mates; he flatly predicts that several of the LP candidates will be elected in November, all in partisan races.

Needless to say, this will be a tremendous boost to us in terms of media exposure as well as internal morale, giving us momentum for the 1980 Presidential race. Many of the other LP campaigns shaping up in the "lower 48" will be extremely beneficial for us in this regard as well.

Please let me know if I can ever be of any service to you.

Sincerely,

Chris Hocker

Dear Mr. Koch:

You are among a very small group of people whose support for the Libertarian Party has been so consistent and so generous that our standard tokens of appreciation are totally inadequate. You should have a direct insight into the workings of the LP National Headquarters, in order to judge for yourself whether your support has been merited. Therefore, I will be attempting to provide this insight to you from time to time.

The recent meeting of the LP National Committee in Atlanta was a very encouraging beginning to a very important year. Many members and observers remarked at the unified sense of purpose which was felt at the meeting. Progress on our new recruiting materials continues, and I expect that we will have our booklet "Local Problems - Libertarian Solutions" out by spring, to join a new recruiting flyer, our campus newspaper Outlook, and a booklet on specific political campaign techniques written particularly for LP candidates.

There are a number of LP candidacies of interest, some of which are likely to result in LP victory in partisan races. I will supply details as they become available. In the meantime, please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of service to you.

Sincerely,

Chris Hocker
